

Cal Poly Professional Compost Training

Join faculty, researchers and industry leaders in a comprehensive training on large-scale composting covering scientific, regulatory, and business considerations at one of the nation's largest university composting operations. A 4-day certificate program, followed by a 1-day industry symposium. Please contact us for enrollment options!